

1. Prevention of re-introduction of offensive weapons into Cuba--by systematic surveillance.
2. Prevention of export of Cuban arms and aggression to other hemisphere countries--as frequently stated by the President.
3. Affirmed use by US citizens of air and sea space in vicinity of Cuba--enforced by US arms if necessary.
4. US will not permit use of Soviet forces against internal uprising in Cuba.
5. US upholds Rio Treaty and pledges protection for Guantanamo and Panama Canal.
6. US supporting economic isolation of Cuba.
7. US achieving political isolation of Cuba--ousting from OAS.
8. US countering Castro subversion efforts in LA.
9. US measures making Soviet support of Castro expensive.
10. US, through USIA, increasing propaganda broadcasts to Cuba and Latin America.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, A/CDC/MB

REVIEWED by [Signature] DATE 2/9/84

REVIEWED BY

(<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>) RELEASE	(<input type="checkbox"/>) DECLASSIFY
(<input type="checkbox"/>) ENGISE	(<input type="checkbox"/>) DECLASSIFY in PART
(<input type="checkbox"/>) DENY	(<input type="checkbox"/>) Non-responsive info.

FOI, EO or PA exemptions

IS authority to:

.. () CLASSIFIED, OADR
.. () DOWNGRADE TO: () S () C, OADR

March 8, 1960

DECLASSIFIED

1. Fight for the restoration of treaty rights affecting the Western Hemisphere, especially the Rio Pact and the Caribbean Community.
2. Complete commitment, at whatever risk, to prevent the reintroduction of offensive weapons into Cuba.
3. Full use of armed force to prevent the use of any arms now in Cuba outside of Cuba.
4. The enforcement of regular surveillance of Cuba by any means required by Western Hemisphere security interests.
5. Prevention of the employment of Soviet military personnel against Cubans as, for example, in the Hungarian affair.
6. Economic isolation of Cuba from the free world with respect both to shipping, trade and finance.
7. Political isolation of Cuba within the hemisphere.
8. Protection by military means, if required, of use by US citizens of international air and water in the vicinity of Cuba.
9. Isolation of Cuba within international organizations with the exception of WHO and PAHO.
10. Continued strengthening of USIS programs in Latin America (radio broadcasting has been expanded from 1 to 12 hours a day since 1960).
11. Continued effort to strengthen cohesion and solidarity among anti-Castro Cubans.
12. Employment of Cuban exiles and refugees in other Latin American countries to tell the anti-Castro story.
13. Maintenance of the political unanimity of the hemisphere against Marxist Leninism and the Castro regime.
14. Special efforts with student groups and trade unions in Latin America on the Castro issue.

DECLASSIFIED

DECLASSIFIED

15. Interruption of movement of funds and personnel between Cuba and other Latin American countries.

16. Stimulation of increased political activity throughout Latin America by conservative, moderate, and democratic Left elements.

17. Sustained broadcasting into Cuba itself.

18. Additional activities not in the public interest to discuss.

S DR:maz (for Mr. Brobeck - dictated in his presence)

DECLASSIFIED